Surry Community College

Surry Community College was founded in 1964 to serve the citizens of Surry and Yadkin counties. It has been recognized as one of the top 120 community colleges in the United States by the Aspen Institute. In addition, Surry has been rated as an Exceptional community college by the North Carolina Community College System in 2010 and 2011.

This building, The Shelton-Badgett North Carolina Viticulture and Enology Center, serves the grape and wine industry, not only in North Carolina, but the entire Southeast providing workforce training and industry support.

This site, a part of the "Geocaching for History" program, was researched and placed by the Mount Airy Museum of Regional History in partnership with Blue Cross Blue Shield North Carolina Foundation and the North Carolina Humanities Council. The goal of this program is to encourage physical activity and exploration of the history of our community.

TUITION, FEES, AND OTHER EXPENSES

COLLEGE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Surry Community College will strive to offer to its community a program to improve skills and develop an intellectual understanding of life. The education of the whole man—the development of all men and of all man's capabilities—aesthetic, social, intellectual and manipulative—will be its goal.

Surry Community College, a two-year college sponsored by Surry County and established under the provision of Chapter 115A of the General Statutes assumes its responsibility to:

—prepare students who desire to transfer to other colleges, by providing them with an adequate preparation of two years of college credit courses.

—prepare those students who wish to qualify for technical occupations by providing them with a strong program of studies appropriate to the needs of the individual and the community.

—provide a program of vocational education for those desiring to upgrade themselves in their chosen vocation or who wish to learn new skills or a new trade.

—encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities to the end that service to the college community may be demonstrated and at the same time foster their own sense of development and well-being.

—provide varied educational programs for the adult members of the service area who wish to improve their personal efficiency, enrich their cultural lives, or develop basic education skills.

HISTORY

Long before the publications of the Carlyle Report citizens of Surry County became interested in establishing a community college in the area. In 1960, the Mount Airy Lions Club appointed a committee of five members to study the possibilities and to communicate with the Division of Higher Education in Raleigh. In 1962, the committee was expanded to include all major civic groups in the county.

Local newspapers and radio stations endorsed the project and expressed wholehearted approval. By May, 1963, interest in a community college had reached a point that a county-wide meeting was held in Dobson to discuss procedural steps. Following the meeting the Surry County Board of Commissioners and the Boards of Education of the Elkin City Schools, the Mount Airy City Schools, and the Surry County Schools endorsed the community college project. Steps were taken to initiate a county-wide study.
