

This temporary exhibit, held in the 3rd floor Changing Exhibit Gallery, will blend historic artifacts from the Museum's Collection with the talents of five local artists to create a unique exhibition that juxtaposes historic objects and the art they inspire. There will be artist demonstrations throughout the opening day, Saturday January 21, 2017. More information will be announced soon.

This project was supported by the North Carolina Arts Council, a division of the Department of Cultural Resources and Surry Arts Council. Artists taking part in this exhibit are:

Blacksmith: Joe Allen

Stained Glass: Gwen Jolley

Pottery: Aaron Blackwelder

Bead Weaving and Embroidery: Glenda Edwards

Water Color and Acrylic Painter: Candice Martin
