“Moravian Christmas Traditions”—Learn about the Moravian Christmas traditions first brought to this area by the early settlers along the Great Wagon Road in the 1750s. Many of these traditions continue today in the Moravian Church, and in the community as a whole. Topics covered include the “Love Feast,” ornaments, and candle making. These tours will be offered ONLY during the first two weeks of December. One hour and thirty minutes. A craft/materials fee of $5 applies. Group size is limited to 45 students.
